Greetings Coalition Family!

"... as good as any white man."

As arrogant, misapplied, misleading an oxymoron as historically possible.

Many of us have heard this phrase, meant to inspire and motivate, meant to dissolve barriers and free the mind from limitations real and imagined. But good is a term difficult to apply to the documented atrocities of the colonialists, crusaders, and purveyors of Christianity.

Some say that one of the benefits of colonization was the spread of Christianity. The same Christianity that 'governs' the most aggressive nations on the planet, the only nations to date to develop and employ the use of weapons of mass destruction, germ warfare and perpetual religious persecution. Even Adolph Hitler was a Christian who espoused the theory of an 'Aryan Christ'.

But here in the u.s., birthplace of freedom and the cradle of liberty, the good brought here was the civilization of the aboriginal peoples, the gentrification of their lands and the creation of a 'pass' system for them to move freely across false boundaries. More good was done when they rescued and employed ignorant savages from Africa. In addition this country has been about the business of waging the 'good wars' for more than 2/3 of its existence. The good chemical science that has been responsible for the creation of more pestilence than it can find a cure for. The good political system is responsible for oppression around the world under the guise of spreading democracy, and the powerful economic system, admired the world over, is based on trinkets and shiny stones and is presently bankrupt.

We all like the thought of being good, but personally, I aspire to compete on a much higher level than the standards set by those who would have the world believe that they function on a higher level of spirituality to be admired by all. Ed.

Mid summer and education plans have to start being made for the upcoming year.

On the new and improved CAP4Kids website, www.cap4kids.org/philadelphia, under the Education tab, you will find subsections on the following topics:

Kindergarten/Pre K Resources

Bullying Resources

College Prep/Scholarships

Tutoring

Out-of-school youth resources

Teen Parenting resources and Miscellaneous

You can view and print out each subsection, or view the entire handout, your choice:)

Just roll your cursor over the selected handout and viola, the subsections pop up. You can also translate each handout to over 10 different languages, by just using the translation flags at the bottom of the page.

Please let us know of any comments you have about the new format and have your colleagues sign up for the CAP4Kids mailing list at

Greater Philadelphia Coalition Against Hunger

New hotline helps families find free summer meals for kids

Starting this week, families in Philadelphia can call a toll-free hotline to find nearby locations that offer free summer meals for children. Operated by the Greater Philadelphia Coalition Against Hunger, the hotline is 1-855-252-MEAL (6325). Families can also text “MEAL” to 84700 to receive a call back.

“During the regular school year, tens of thousands of low-income students rely on free or reduced-price meals at school,” said Carey Morgan, Coalition Executive Director.

“But when school is out and they’re not getting that food, they face higher risks of hunger and malnutrition. The Philly Summer Meals Hotline will help families fill that void, by referring them to nearby recreation centers, parks, churches and community organizations that offer free meals to kids and teens.”

Last year, more than 119,000 children in Pennsylvania received summer meals. But that’s less than one-fourth of the 553,000 low-income children who received free or reduced-priced lunch during the regular school year

“Those who are born with the possession of knowledge are the highest class of men. Those who learn and readily gain possession of knowledge are the next. Those who are dull and stupid, and yet manage to learn are another class next to these. As to those who are dull and stupid and yet do not learn—they are the lowest of the people. But, Learning without thought is labor lost; thought without learning is perilous.”

—a sign that many low-income children who need summer meals aren’t getting them, according to a recent report from the Food Research and Action Center. Recent budget cuts have also forced the School District of Philadelphia to reduce the number of summer programs it offers, meaning fewer students will be eating free meals in summer school this year.

Despite the change, “there are still nearly 1,000 sites serving free summer meals in Philadelphia, so there’s no reason any child should go hungry this summer,” Morgan said.

Free summer meals are available to children age 18 and under. There is no registration or income requirement at most sites.

Mandela Day on July 18th is a global call to action that celebrates the idea that each individual has the power to transform the world, and the ability to make an impact.

The Mandela Day campaign message is simple: Nelson Mandela gave 67 years of his life fighting for the rights of humanity. Everyone can give 67 minutes of their time. Mandela Day is a call to action for individuals - for people everywhere - to take responsibility for changing the world into a better place, one small step at a time, just as Mandela did.

by the The Nation of Islam to check the violence tearing down what is left of The National Black Community.

Rather than conduct it's Men Meeting Monday evenings, the Fruit of Islam (The Men) have mobilized in the streets in a reported "100" cities across America. The objective is to organize community wide efforts of every element in the community to clean up the so-called "up tick in violence" that haunts us. Whatever city we happen to be in, please report back if you intend to relate in some way to this important, historic initiative effort, led by Minister Louis Farrakhan, The National Representative of The Honorable Elijah Muhammad.

4th Annual MLK365 Beer Summit on Race scheduled

Three years ago this July, in the aftermath of the arrest of Harvard professor Henry Louis Gates on the front porch of his own home by Cambridge Police Sergeant James Crowley, President Obama invited the two men to the White House for a meeting over beer to discuss the incident. At the same time in Philadelphia, MLK365 organized a Beer Summit in Center City Philadelphia for concerned citizens to meet, mingle, and discuss race relations in our city and throughout America.

On Wednesday, August 1st, Global Citizen will continue the discussion about race, class and power and how we all can overcome the barriers that threaten to divide us. The conversation will feature Columbia University Professor Marc Lamont Hill. Among topics of discussion, will be his most recent book, *The Classroom and the Cell: Conversations on Black Life in America.*

The event will take place in the

Saturday, July 21, 2012
at 10:00am in Kansas City, Mo.....

Kansas City, Mo....The formation and battle of the First Kansas Colored Voluntary Infantry in August 4, 1862 was the fifth opportunity to strenghten the anti-slavery movement in Kansas, that affected all of America in which former slaves as soldiers saw and participated for the first time in combat during the Civil War. The author of this press release is a Civil War Reenactor. His character, James Whitfield Ross, was a member of the First Kansas Colored. Sonny Scroggins, a representative of the Lane Family, will appear at the Battle of Westport Visitor Center Museum, 6601 Swope Parkway in KCMO.

On July 22, 2006, Mr. Scroggins carried the Kansas Flag during the Westport Civil War Cannon Dedication Ceremony in Kansas City, Missouri and presented the Honorable Mayor of Kansas City, Kay Barnes, with a postmarked official Cachet Envelope from the 1998 unveiling of the African American Civil War Memorial Ceremony in Washington,

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Q: Are these manufacturer coupons or coupons that I print on my computer?

A: All of our coupons are actual manufacturer coupons. Fewer and fewer retailers accept coupons that are printed from your computer because of a huge increase in counterfeit coupons. Actual manufacturer coupons which we issue are accepted everywhere that coupons are accepted.

Q: Can these coupons be doubled?

A: Yes. These are manufacturer issued coupons and may be doubled in any store that offers double coupons.

Q: What are the face values and the expiration dates of these coupons?

A: Being manufacturer coupons, the manufacturer determines the face values of the coupons. We currently stock coupons ranging in value from 40 cents to 5.00 dollars. The coupon expiration dates are generally valid for 90 days.

Q: How can I use $1,000.00 worth of coupons in 90 days?

A: With our program, you get to choose the coupons you want, when you want them. This way you never have to worry about the coupons expiring.

Q: How do I choose the coupons I want?

A: Each coupon book contains coupon request slips which you fill out and send in. Those coupons are then mailed to you.
