“Communication – Cooperation – Collaboration”

Volume 7, Number 21

Greetings Coalition Family!

Misplaced Aggression

I’m forever amazed by american-born blacks that support aggressive activities against other people of color around the world.

To support aggression against people who you are told are your enemies by people who have continuously shown no love for you is insane, people who encourage you to be ‘non-violent’ in your quest for equality, while turning a blind eye to those who advocate and perpetuate heinous acts of psychological, emotional and physical violence against you and people who look like you.

Every effective voice from our community has been neutralized. Even down to entertainers and athletes who make public statements of dissent. In the face of continued aggression against our survival, how can we continue to support aggression toward those who suffer the same oppression as ourselves?

“People involved in a revolution don't become part of the system; they destroy the system... The Negro revolution is no revolution because it condemns the system and then asks the system it has condemned to accept them...” – El Hajj Malik El Shabazz

We each hold a piece to the puzzle.” – Dr. John Elliott Churchville

HEALTH MATTERS

Don Ringgold's Health Wealth(sm): The Genesis Project (Article IX)

The method of removing the poisons, mucus, and or waste can be a key factor toward recovery. At a certain point instead of panicking and turning back, one can apply the way of our “earthly mother” . Like our worldly mother, our earthly mother provides for us a very special nurturing quality. She is a source for healing grace. As we study, we will find that our earthly mother has provided herbs that can be our meat. There is a specific herb that has an affinity for healing each organ in the body. Here we quote Hippocrates (and perhaps Imhotep) ‘the father of medicine’ “Your food are your remedies and your remedies are your food”. For instance, hawthorn berry rebuilds and enhances the structure of the heart. Cayenne pepper, a fruit, strengthens the cardio vascular system, capillaries, arteries, and veins. Garlic is also great for the heart and cardiovascular system. It destroys viruses and destructive bacteria, lowers bad cholesterol and eliminates plaque. Four cloves is a sufficient amount to consume. Odorless garlic is on the market and preferable to the cloves because of the sulfur content and sometimes burning to the taste. An adverse reaction is very rare. When consumed moderately garlic is strengthening and enhances vitality. The three herbs in combination eliminate heart palpitations. They are a tremendous gift to the heart of humanity.

Ginkgo biloba extract is excellent for brain function. Ginseng extract nourishes the lungs. A ginseng ginkgo combination can be very beneficial. These herbs are placed in a 10-milliliter vial with a honey base, alcohol free. When evaluating ginseng consider that American is suggested for women (Yin) and Chinese is recommended for men (Yang). Of course the yin alludes to the passive power in human nature and the yang alluding to the active power of human nature. If one needs to be more passive, then American Ginseng is recommended. If there is a need to be aggressive Asian or Chinese Ginseng render interesting results. Consider Korean and Siberian ginseng as well. Ginseng and royal jelly in combination is quite useful for energy.

"We live in a confused...sick, neurotic nation."... "I'm sorry to have to say to you that the vast majority of white Americans are racist, either consciously or unconsciously." - A quote Dr. Martin L. King jr.

Slippery elm, comfrey, thyme and pineapple are also very powerful in nourishing the lungs. Eyebright, bilberry, and carrot are great herbs for the eyes. Eating blueberries for a few days improves eyesight, and has a cleansing effect on the colon.

Milk thistle and holy thistle are right for the liver. Marshmallow, the herb not the sugar puffs, strengthens the kidneys. When we consider what is good for the stomach, colon, small intestines, gall bladder, spleen, pancreas, and urinary tract, dandelion, slippery elm and goldenseal root are excellent. This goldenseal root is very powerful and cannot be used in all cases. Copyright Don Ringgold 2013

Microsoft Scholarships help students who are pursuing degrees in computer science, engineering, and other technical areas of study. The scholarships are for students who are currently enrolled in a U.S. college or university.

Scholarships include General Scholarships, Women's Scholarships, Minority Scholarships and Scholarships for Students with Disabilities. Minority applicants must be from African-American, Hispanic, or Native American descent. Women's Scholarships are for women pursuing a PhD degree.

Students applying for a Microsoft Scholarship must have a grade point average of 3.0, financial need, an interest in the software industry, and must complete an internship in Redmond, Washington. Applicants must also have leadership qualities. The scholarship money can be used for tuition only, not room and board.

Eligible students must already be enrolled in college pursuing a Bachelors degree in computer science, computer engineering, electrical engineering, math or physics. The college or university can be located in the U.S., Canada, or Mexico.

Microsoft offers more than a half-million dollars in scholarships. The scholarships encourage more students to pursue technical degrees. Microsoft employs 90,000 people in over 100 countries and is a leader in home and business technology products, internet tools and other business and office solutions.

The deadline for this scholarship is usually in FEBRUARY of each year, and the award amount VARIES.

released an application to select 15 individuals to participate in the Philly Roots Fellowship.

The Philly Roots Initiative was developed by United Way and its partners in an attempt to systemically, yet creatively, ensure that young African American men graduate from high school and are college and career ready. The program equips formal and informal adult mentors with the tools they need to assist young men in achieving these goals.

Eligible applicants include:

* Individuals (coaches, community members, leaders of groups or small grassroots organizations) that have worked with the same group of at least five young black men in grades 6-12, for at least one year

* Individuals who can commit to making a strong contribution to this emerging community of practice, and who will make a serious effort to increase the capacity and impact of their mentoring work and the broader Philadelphia community

* Individuals who have been and will continue to do the work they've been doing regardless of whether there is funding or not, or whether they are being compensated to do it, and regardless of where they are employed. Individuals need not be employed or affiliated with a 501(c)(3) organization to apply.

Preference will be given to those applicants who can demonstrate that they are serving young black men in grades 6-12 at risk of dropping out of school, who attend schools on United Way's Targeted Schools List.

UAC is not only a network of 75 partner organizations and programs driving change from the ground up, we are a family! You may have seen recent reports that a member of our family, Destined for a Dream was involved in a bus accident late Saturday evening in Boston returning from a tour of Harvard University. Though most of the students and chaperones were treated and are home, several students and adults are still in the hospital in serious condition. Destined for a Dream Foundation's focus is to work closely with disadvantaged youth to build their leadership skills, develop self-discipline, positive self-esteem, and the ability to work in teams. Destined for a Dream also works to ensure that youth grow academically, socially and culturally.

At UAC the Power of Coalition means that, together, we can accomplish what no one organization can do alone. UAC, Harvard University, the Red Cross and the Yankee Bus Company have already shown their support by providing aide and services. Won't you join us?

Support Destined for a Dream by making a donation to help the families of those injured. Cathy Harris Launches a 2013 "National Health and Business Empowerment Tour"

"Being a Negro in America means trying to smile when you want to cry. It means trying to hold on to physical life amid psychological death. Hello Everyone:

On January 2, 2013, I was on the road out of Atlanta, GA on my way to Detroit, Michigan to launch a "National Health and Business Empowerment Tour" starting in February 2013.

Other cities besides Detroit, MI where we have relatives and friends and plan on bringing the tour include - Indianapolis, IN, Columbus, Dayton and Youngstown, OH, Chicago, IL, Pennsylvania, New York, New Jersey, Maryland, Washington, DC, Virginia, North and South Carolina, Florida, Alabama, Louisiana, Texas and California.

Remember if you keep doing things the same way, then you will get the same results, which means sometimes in order to become successful in your career, business and life, you need to "step out on your faith" -- outside of your comfort zone...so I felt that I needed to take my empowerment company, Angels Press, my services and products, nationwide.

As this country prepares for an EXPLOSION of sick people especially children, African Americans know very little about Genetically Modified foods so we will be educating the community on which foods to eat while avoiding Genetically Modified Organisms (GMOs).

Let's face it - the education system in this country is horrible with 70% dropout rates of many African American students in many cities. Either we change this system or we seriously look at 'home schooling' or building 'afrocentric schools' as an option (Read "How To Change the Education System.")

Working with children is extremely hard and not everyone can do it! Nowadays many teachers, after being abused by students, are retiring from the school system at the age 30. On the other hand if you like working with children or if you are a retired educator, you need to write a good business plan and go to black banks and set up 'tutoring' and 'learning centers' in your own communities.

Our goals are to uplift the masses of people while reconstructing our communities to build vital nations. In order to create a greater unity among the African American community, we must have an outlet to Hereeeeeeeeeeeeeees... Kathy's Korner!

While taking a routine vandalism report at an elementary school, the policeman was interrupted by a 6 year-old looking up and down his uniform, she asked. "Are you a policeman? "Yes," he answered and continued writing the report. "My mother said if I ever needed help I should ask the police. Is that right?" "Yes, that's right, the policeman told her. "Well, then," the little girl said as she extended her foot toward him, "would you please tie my shoe?" (Kathy Parsons is a regular contributor.)

disseminate vital information in various forms that will assist us to promote and define our interests and aspirations.

Now it's time for a national tour, to really bring the message home. This is why I recently launched another initiative "Cathy Harris School of Learning" to provide 'hands-on' training to the entire family via the phone, internet, etc. for those we can't reach on the tour.

As a veteran, I would particularly like to work with veterans. We are seeking other speakers and trainers who can join us on this tour so we can make a major impact in African American communities across the country. We just ask that you not be involved in any type of network or multi-level marketing ventures or anything that will negatively impact the community.

Whichever communities embrace our health and business "action plans" will be the communities we will be working with in the future.

The tour will be starting out in Detroit, MI in February 2013 -- where I will be in the surrounding area or states for at least 2 months. If you would like to join us on this tour or add your city to the tour, or schedule an event, then call (770) 873-2072 or email info@CathyHarrisSpeaks.com with your name, phone numbers, website including facebook.com, twitter.com, linkedin.com and other addresses.

Family Survival Inc. is a 501(c)3 organization provides cultural, educational, spiritual and economic tools needed to create a positive and lasting legacy within the African American community.

*Family Survival Inc., a 501(c)3 organization, was founded by Brothers Rashie Abdul Samad and Rashie Abdur Rahim after realizing that the key to reclaiming the African American community lies in re-establishing connection with Africa, it's art, history, culture, economy and people. The program started with exposing young people to the culture of African music and art, as well as learning the basics of business. While the founding principles remain intact, the program has expanded by partnering with other community organizations and businesses in the spirit of umoja (unity) to ensure our collective *Family

The Expanded Success Initiative (ESI) is an educational component of the city's Young Men's Initiative, the nation's boldest and most comprehensive effort that tackles the broad disparities slowing the advancement of Black and Latino young men. ESI is generously supported by the Open Society Foundations and administered by the NYC Department of Education's Office of Postsecondary Readiness.

The ESI School Design Fellowship will bring together a diverse cadre of potential school leaders, from which the principals of the new schools will be drawn. Fellows can come from the fields of youth and community work, or entrepreneurship and management, or educational reform or another relevant field.

We are looking for exceptional leaders who are excited by this challenge and are ready to join a career-making opportunity in our fellowship program. Fellows must be available to begin full-time work by July 1, 2013, although individuals who are available can begin onboarding in April 2013.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Q: Are these manufacturer coupons or coupons that I print on my computer?

A: All of our coupons are actual manufacturer coupons. Fewer and fewer retailers accept coupons that are printed from your computer because of a huge increase in counterfeit coupons. Actual manufacturer coupons which we issue are accepted everywhere that coupons are accepted.

Q: Can these coupons be doubled?

A: Yes. These are manufacturer issued coupons and may be doubled in any store that offers double coupons.

Q: What are the face values and the expiration dates of these coupons?

A: Being manufacturer coupons, the manufacturer determines the face values of the coupons. We currently stock coupons ranging in value from 40 cents to 5.00 dollars. The coupon expiration dates are generally valid for 90 days.

Q: How can I use $1,000.00 worth of coupons in 90 days?

A: With our program, you get to choose the coupons you want, when you want them. This way you never have to worry about the coupons expiring.

Q: How do I choose the coupons I want?

A: Each coupon book contains coupon request slips which you fill out and send in. Those coupons are then mailed to you.
